Howard Shanks is playing snappy th. "I will make a great infielder it of him yet," says Griff.

Eddle Foster is still with the bunch The ball that injured his hand did not seem to be moving with speed enough to break an egg.

Shanks was mixed up in a funny play in the third. He was on first, having singled, when Milan pushed one down to Barry. As Jack fumbled the pill Shanks, who was passing him, accidentally kicked it, the ball going directly into the hands of Scotty, who was at second waiting for a force play. "What will we give Scott on that?" said somebody. "Give him three cheers," said some-Shanks was mixed up in a funny live him three cheers," said some-

RAID BASEBALL POOL IN WINDY CITY

CHICAGO, June 27.—Believing $100,000 changes hands each week in a gigantic pool here, the police have begun rounding up suspects. In raids on two buildings last night and early today, six men were arrested. Police said they captured 3,000 score and tally sheets giving names of numerous bookmakers, who will be arrested who defeated A. L. Knapp. of the same school, by 6-3, 3-6, 5-2, in the final round.

In doubles Paul Conklin and Don Mooney won in the final round, defeating A. L. Knapp and H. S. White by a score of 6-4, 7-3.

Paul Conklin, who won the boys' title here, earns the right to compete at Forest Hills, L. L. for the national boys' championship singles. Forty "tennis centers" designated by the United States Lawn Tennis Association included this city.

The junior singles will be run off today and matches in the first and second rounds of the junior doubles will be played.

Jack Dudley, of Central High School, won his way to the final round yesterday when he defeated Beale by 6-0, 6-1. Dudley's brant of tennis assures him a fine chance against B. F. Price, who is expected to come though in the lower half of the bracket.
